

Fenland District Council

MEMBER GUIDANCE FOR COMPLETING THE REGISTER OF INTERESTS

This document is intended to provide guidance about the information members should include on the register of disclosable pecuniary interests form and should be read in conjunction with it, Fenland District Council's Constitution and Member's Code of Conduct.

It is a legal requirement that each member must register their disclosable pecuniary interests and those of their partner. A form must be completed for each authority of which you are a member and it is not sufficient to simply refer to the register of another authority.

Each individual member must make their own judgement about making a declaration and they should not rely on a direction from an officer though, if in doubt, they should seek guidance from the Monitoring Officer on 01354 622360 or cpilson@fenland.gov.uk.

All members are required to complete the form within 28 days of them being elected or re-elected. Outside this period, when members have declared a disclosable pecuniary interest at a meeting and that interest was not on their register they must provide an updated form within 28 days of that meeting. The same applies to members making individual decisions (for example signing a Cabinet Member Decision Notice).

Sensitive Information

"Sensitive information" means information whose availability for inspection by the public creates or is likely to create a serious risk that you or a person who lives with you may be subjected to violence or intimidation.

Where you consider that the information relating to any of you or your partner's personal interests is sensitive information and the Monitoring Officer agrees, you need not include that information when registering that interest or, as the case may be, a change to that interest. A note will be placed in the register simply to confirm that an interest exists but not details will be disclosed.

You must within 28 days of becoming aware of any change of circumstances, which means that information excluded under the previous paragraph is no longer sensitive information, notify the Monitoring Officer asking that the register is updated either to remove the interest (if it no longer exists) or to include the normal detail relating to it.

PART 1: DISCLOSABLE PECUNIARY INTERESTS

Failure to register or declare a disclosable pecuniary interest is a criminal offence. So is speaking and voting on an item of business where that interest is engaged unless a dispensation has been given. Non-compliance with these requirements is punishable by a fine of up to £5,000 and/or disqualification as a Councillor for up to five years.

Even though this information sits on the public register of interest, if your disclosable pecuniary interest is engaged by any item of business of the Council, you must declare this at the meeting and not speak or vote on the item, and you must leave the room.

It is also advised that you make your disclosable pecuniary interest known to other Councillors in any informal meetings the Council holds such as All Member Seminars. Further in ensuring compliance with the principles of public life set out in the Code of Conduct, Members must ensure that they do not seek to unduly influence officers or other Members in any formal or informal setting where their interests are engaged.

ANY EMPLOYMENT, OFFICE, TRADE, PROFESSION OR VOCATION CARRIED OUT BY YOU OR YOUR PARTNER FOR PROFIT OR GAIN

- You should declare the name of you/your partner's employer if you are employed.
- If you or your partner are self-employed or run your own business you should declare this information.
- You should declare every type of employment, office, trade, profession or vocation that you or your partner carry out or should declare for income tax purposes;
- You should include the name of any firm of which you or your partner are a Partner and the name of any company of which you are a remunerated Director. Also include any body which has appointed you with or without remuneration.
- In each instance you should provide a brief description of the activity concerned e.g. 'accountant'.

NB: Whilst the declaration required does not include any voluntary or unpaid post, 'gain' could include other rewards e.g. bonus payments or share dividends.

SPONSORSHIP

Note: This section only applies to you (and not your partner).

- You should always include any payment made to you for expenses incurred as a member of Fenland District Council.
- You should show here the name of any person or body, except Fenland District Council, who has made a payment to you in respect of your election expenses.
- You should include any payment made to you by a trade union.
- You do not need to declare the amount of any payments, only the name of the person or organisation making them.

Note: It is likely that if you are a member of a registered political party you will have had your expenses met by your political party or any other organisation and you are therefore advised to check this before completing this section. This would then need to be declared.

CONTRACTS

You should describe all contracts of which you or your partner are aware which are not fully discharged and which are:

- Contracts between Fenland District Council (or your Town/Parish Council as appropriate) and yourself and/or your partner for the supply of goods or services or works to the Council (District/Town/Parish); and
- Contracts between a firm in which you or your partner are a Partner or a company of which you are a Director or in which you have a beneficial interest and the Council (District/Parish/Town) for the supply of goods, services or works to the Council (District/Parish/Town) or on its behalf.
- You need not say what the financial arrangements are but should say for how long the contract is.

LAND, LICENCES & CORPORATE TENANCIES

- You should declare any land in the council area for which you have been elected and in which you or your partner have a beneficial interest (that is, in which you or your partner have some proprietary interest for your own benefit).
- You should include the house in which you live whether owned or rented.
- You should declare any property from which you or your partner receive rent or of which you are the mortgagee.
- You should declare land in the council area for which have been elected and in which you or your partner have a right either alone or jointly with another to occupy for 28 days or longer but neither own nor have a tenancy of. This includes allotments, garage licences, grazing arrangements or any other short-term arrangements.
- You should list any tenancies of property of which you or your partner are aware that the landlord is the council and the tenant is either a firm in which you or your partner are a Partner or a company of which you or your partner are a Director or in which you or your partner have a beneficial interest.
- For each of the properties declared you should give the address or a brief description sufficiently to identify it.

Note: "Land" includes any buildings or parts of buildings but does not necessarily require a building to be present.

SECURITIES

- If you or your partner own shares or other forms of equity in a company or other body which has a place of business within the council area, you will need to consider whether the interest is to be registered.
- You need to identify the nominal value; this is the amount of shared indicated on the certificate, not the market value. If this exceeds £25,000 you need to register the name of the company or body.
- If this is less than £25,000 but you or your partner's share is more than 1% of the total issued share capital, you still need to register the name of the company or body.
- This includes companies, industrial and provident societies, co-operative societies or other bodies corporate.
- Deposits at banks or building societies do not need to be shown.

PART 2: NON-PECUNIARY AND OTHER INTERESTS

You should provide details of any other interests you wish to declare but which are not disclosable pecuniary interests. They will instead be 'non-disclosable pecuniary interests' or 'non-pecuniary' interests and are generally defined in Fenland District Council's Code of Conduct as 'Other Interests'.

Other Interests will arise where an item of business to be considered by the authority for which you are elected requires:

- A decision which might reasonably be regarded as affecting the well-being or financial standing of you or a member of your family or a person with whom you have a close association to a greater extent than it would affect the majority of council tax payers, rate payers or inhabitants of the ward or electoral area for which you have been elected or otherwise of the authority's administrative area; or
- It relates to or is likely to affect any of the interests which fall within the definition of a disclosable pecuniary interest but in respect of a member of your family (other than your partner) or a person with whom you have a close association.

Non-exhaustive examples could include:

- Membership of or position of control or management in any body to which you have been appointed by the Council as its representative (i.e. an outside body appointment);
- Membership of a body whose principal purpose includes the influence of public opinion or policy;
- Membership of a charitable organisation, a trade union, professional association or private club.

REGISTER OF MEMBERS' FINANCIAL AND OTHER INTERESTS

Fenland District Council

The Localism Act 2011 requires you to declare your interests by completing this form within 28 days of your election or appointment to office. You must also complete a revised form within 28 days of becoming aware of any changes to the information you have provided.

Please complete each section for you and your partner. If the section is not applicable to you or your partner please write 'N/A' or 'none'; please do not leave the section blank.

Please note that 'partner' means your spouse or civil partner or someone with whom you are living as if you were spouses or civil partners. For the purpose of this register, an interest of your partner is classed as your disclosable pecuniary interest. The Council's website will not name your partner and all disclosable pecuniary interests, including those that relate to your partner will be shown on the Council's website as your interests.

Completed forms should be returned to the Member Services Team for forwarding to the Monitoring Officer. The interests declared will then be recorded in a register which is maintained by the Monitoring Officer and will be published on Fenland District Council's website. If however you consider that disclosure of some or all of the information included in this form could lead to you or any person connected with you being exposed to violence or intimidation you may apply to Fenland District Council's Monitoring Officer to exclude details of the interest(s) from being published in the register.

If you have any questions about what you have to register please refer to the accompanying guide and/or contact the Monitoring Officer on 01354 622360 or cpilson@fenland.gov.uk for assistance. Failure to register or declare a disclosable pecuniary interest is a criminal offence. So is speaking and voting on an item of business where that disclosable pecuniary interest is engaged unless a dispensation has been given. Non-compliance with these requirements is punishable by a fine of up to £5,000 and/or disqualification as a Councillor for up to five years.
